The City of Cleveland

is added to the long list of adoptions of the

Wentworth-Smith: Essentials of Arithmetic

Lakewood, East Cleveland, and Cleveland Heights and the entire County of Cuyahoga had previously chosen these books.

Thus, the children of one community of nearly One Million People will now get their arithmetic work from the sanest, simplest, most adaptable, and best balanced of all modern textbooks in arithmetic.

The State of Idaho is among other significant adoptions.

Do you know these books and understand why in a single year they have distanced all competitors? If you do not, let us tell you the story.
